DEDICATEE — 1997

Edward Sarro, the oldest son of Freddy and Louise Sarro, grew up in Mansfield, Massachusetts. After graduating from Bishop Feehan High School in 1967, he attended Bridgewater State College. Upon achievement of his teaching degree, Ed Sarro began his career at West Bridgewater High School. In his early days, he doubled as a bus driver and a driver education instructor. Ed Sarro has taught in West Bridgewater for more than twenty-five years and also works part time at a family business.

In addition to teaching Advanced Placement Biology and other science courses, Ed Sarro serves as advisor to both the Junior Class and the National Honor Society. He is also the President of the Faculty Senate. In his spare time, Ed Sarro enjoys cooking, snowmobiling, golfing as well as spending time in New Hampshire and Florida.

Ed Sarro resides in Mansfield and has four children - Michael, 20; Lisa, 19; Patrick, 17 and Christopher, 16.

MR. EDWARD SARRO

"A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence stops."

(Henry Brooks Adams)

After much thought and consideration, the Class of 1997 dedicates our yearbook to the one teacher whose humor and wit can make everyone smile, Mr. Edward Sarro. Mr. Sarro's encouragement, caring, and always-pleasant attitude have helped us greatly along the way. Whether it was as junior class advisor, National Honor Society advisor, or just simply as a classroom teacher, you have taught us a lot and for that, we are grateful. With respect and hopes that someday another class can be as fortunate as we have been, we dedicate our yearbook to you. Thank you, Mr. Sarro, for believing in and encouraging us for the past four years.

Class of 1997

"No act of kindness, no matter how small, is ever wasted." (Aesop)

On June 9, 1996, Ryan Kincaid, a member of the Class of 1997, was severely injured in a bicycle accident. The days following this tragedy were filled with tears, love, and hope. Students decorated signs, banners, cards, and letters that were sent to Ryan daily in the hospital, while W.B.H.S. turned itself into a sort-of-tribute to our friend and classmate. "Rhino" signs were proudly displayed on almost every locker throughout the school, as well as the doors of all the teachers and staff members. A video was created and, for it, teachers and students danced "The Macarena" in the gymnasium in an effort to make Ryan smile. The day before school ended, buses were donated, and our entire class went in to visit Ryan at his rehabilitation hospital. A Boston news station was there and a segment aired that evening about Ryan and our class visit. The support and love shown by students, parents, and teachers was like nothing I had ever seen before. It was even more touching when people outside of the school became involved. Benefit concerts were held and raffles and tournaments were organized in an effort to raise money to help defray medical costs and other expenses. People from all over came to play in the summer volleyball tournament and, then again, in the fall basketball tournament. Hundreds of people purchased raffle tickets and Ryan chose the winners himself in early August. Throughout the entire summer, friends continued to send cards and gifts to Ryan, first when he was in the hospital, and even after he came home. Ryan hosted friends, neighbors, relatives, and teachers all summer long. Townspeople got together to build a ramp for the Kincaid house and others found a hospital bed so Ryan would be more comfortable in his own home. The Ryan Kincaid Fund was created and many donations were received.

Whether it was making a card, filming a video, donating a dollar, or nailing in a ramp, everybody did something and Ryan appreciated all of it. Every effort made it a little easier for Ryan and his family. It was something I don't think any of us will ever forget. To the business, townspeople, teachers, parents, students, friends, and many others, who showed concern, donated, prayed, gave, and loved, we thank you. Because of all of you, Ryan's world was made into a much happier place and for that, we are extremely grateful. Ryan's positive attitude and courage has been an inspiration to all of us, and just as inspiring was the way our community pulled together and was a constant show of support for our friend and his family. On behalf of the Class of 1997, I thank you. Not only for helping Ryan, but for the showing us that out of darkness, hope truly is born.

Superintendent of Schools

Mrs. Rena Shea
Director of Special Ed.

Congratulations to the graduates of the Class of 1997.

There is a constant that will serve you well. The education you have received in the West Bridgewater Public Schools will enable you to approach future endeavors with confidence. You must establish goals and work hard to attain them. Along the way, you must temper your lifestyle with concern for others. Be prepared to give something back to your community to those less fortunate.

I wish you much success and happiness now and in the future.

Look not mournfully
into the Past,
It comes not again.
Wisely improve the Present
It is thine.
Go forth to meet
The Shadowy Future
Without fear
And with a stout heart.

Dear Members of the Class of 1997

Congratulations! The past thirteen years have allowed you to develop and realize many most precious commodities: Knowledge, social skills, maturity, responsibility, respect and many other. Hundreds of individuals have assisted you along the way and you can thank them for their gratitude, however you worked, you sacrificed and you achieved. Therefore, you deserve the recognition and credit. I send it to you!!

I encourage you to continue to broaden your knowledge and further refine your skills. Life is extremely rewarding, fulfilling and beautiful when you establish clear goals and work to realize them. Take the calculated risks...dream...build and it will succeed. As you leave West Bridgewater High, do so knowing full well that this community stands behind you, proud of you and willing to assist you in any way possible.

We all look forward to hearing and reading about your future successes.

A favorite quote of mine that has great symbolic meaning is as follows: "The extra mile is the one stretch of the road that never crowds."

Go the extra mile, accomplish your objectives and be happy. Good luck and God Bless each and everyone of you.

Best wishes,
Jeff Russell

Principal

Dear Class of 1997:

Four years ago we entered the hallowed halls of WBHS together: you as naive, fragile, wide-eyed Freshmen; me, as the new Principal on the block.

Through these years I have watched you grow and mature into assertive, intelligent, responsible, young adults. I find pleasure in your company and your collective sense of humor is uplifting. I have challenged you to be the "role models" of the school and you have responded with enthusiasm and vigor. (Occasionally some whining can be heard!)

You are the first class to complete four full years under my tutelage as Principal. You have met my expectations and gone beyond.

Next year the world will bring you new challenges and expectations. There is absolutely no doubt in my mind that you will meet these challenges and exceed expectations.

May you attain much success and happiness in your future. The Class of 1997 will always hold a special place in my thoughts.

Much Success And Happiness

To the graduating Class of 1997:

Collectively, the Class of 1997 has proved the old adage "Success is not measured by the heights attained, but the obstacles overcome." That statement is as true today as it was when you first walked through the doors to West Bridgewater Middle - Senior High School six years ago. Every student has overcome obstacles and achieved some level of success - in the classroom, on the athletic field, in extracurricular activities. We hope that when you walk out these doors for the final time, you are well prepared for the road ahead.

From this point, you are on your own. You are beginning your travels into the unknown realm we call the future. Don't follow any set directions, or be fooled to think that you can. Instead, use your education and experiences at West Bridgewater Middle - Senior High School as a road map. The common sense and a sound education you have gained in the past six years shall elevate you to the next plateau - whether that be college or in the workforce. Nonetheless, remember that the teachers and staff of West Bridgewater Middle - Senior High School, who have helped you get this far, will be here when you return to boast of your successes and aid in your life travels.

Sincerely

To the members if the Class of 1997

It has been my pleasure working with you during this year. Although I have only known you since September, I easily recognize the talent and unique qualities possessed by the students in this class. There is no doubt West Bridgewater will be proud of your future accomplishments. I wish you satisfaction in your career choices, and happiness in your personal endeavors. I have truly enjoyed our short time together.

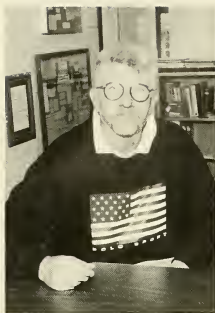

Congratulations!

Before you leave, straighten out my desks please. -Mrs. Page

Remember- Donuts and Deadlines! -Mrs. Kenrick

You gain courage and confidence by every experience in which you really stop to look fear in the face. You must do the thing you think you cannot do --- and ... get ride of the gum! -Mrs. Peckham {...} Dumbonus: What do you call the smartest glassware in the lab? Hee-Hee!

Best Wishes to the Class of 1997. Special congratulations to the Captainettes... Sara(h), Nancy, Jen, Karen, Teresa, and Tiffany. Thanks for being great role models. You made coaching track a pleasure! -Mrs. Oakley
P.S. Karen, stay off the bleachers.

Cook's Crusaders were the best! Our parties were great! I will always remember you and your classmates as one of the most remarkable group of students I've had the pleasure of working with. Continued success to all! -Mrs. Cook

As I thought of the Class of 1997 it occurred to me that the year I started working in the guidance office - 1979 - was the year that most of you were born - it must have been a good year, we have all grown a lot ... learned a lot ... I have enjoyed you all so much. -Mrs. Boyd

As I think about the Class of 97, I think back to the Junior High Girl's B-ball team of 93: Burley, Meade, Barry, Cordery, Chilauskas, and Krugger; it was a pleasure to be your coach and see you grow. I also think of my Calculus and Trig classes this year. A super group of kids who make teaching fun.

Class of 97

Stand proud and tall,

Best of Luck always

As you strive for your call. -Mr. Weintraub

My 2 strongest memories of the Class of 1997 include wanting to take the grade 8 honors class "on tour" because they could diagram 75 word sentences perfectly- a talent I'm sure, they've since put to good use. My other memory is our experience of winning (again) in grade 8 the Homeroom Challenge. So many students put forth strong effort that allowed us to win the majority of the events. That was the year Nicole McDermott "discovered" her leadership potential and I'm pleased to have been a part of her self-realization. The best of everything to the Class of 97. -Mrs. Cleary

From "Le Petit Prince": "...And so the Little Prince tamed the Fox.

And when the hour of departure drew near-

"Ah," said the Fox, "I shall cry."

"It's your own fault," said the Little Prince. "I never wished you any harm; but you wanted me to tame you...."

"That is so," said the Fox.

"But you are going to cry!" said the Little Prince.

"That is so," said the Fox.

"Then it has done you no good at all!" said the Little Prince.

"Oh, but it has done me good!" said the Fox.

Thank you for allowing me the opportunity to "tame" you. It has truly done me good. -Mrs. Boutin

Best of luck in everything you choose to do in the future. I hope we've taught you some ideas and concepts that you can apply to the "real world". Remember, respect your peers, and also yourself! -Mr. Lucius

"When nothing seems to help I go and look at a stonecutter hammering away at his rock perhaps a hundred times without as much as a crack showing in it. Yet at the one hundred and first blow it will split in two, and I know it was not that blow that did it --but all that had gone before." (Unknown) -Mr.Barrett.

The Class of 1997 is special. It has not been the largest, but it has been the most- the most humane and humorous, the most involved an intellectual, the most conscientious and considerate. For me, this class is unique. I think I have had all of you one time or another; some of you I have had for all 4 years and 6 classes. We have spent hours together in class, before school and after. I have watched you dance, sing, act, doodle, and draw, organize Renaissance Fairs and Multicultural Programs, make touchdowns, shoot baskets, score goals, get your licenses, go to Proms, apply to colleges, become world travelers (at least as far as Westgate), win trophies and titles, stumble occasionally and rise to the occasion, take your places leaders and mentors and grow old and wise and now get ready to leave. I have been blessed by your company and kindnesses. I will miss you all. -Mrs. Barber

It seems just yesterday that you were clapping out your prepositions doing Greek mythology plays, and here you are graduating and planning for your future! One particular memory I have is our class trip to George's Island. -Mrs. Bystrom

I remember a few freshman could not be scheduled into Keyboarding grade 9 so ended up being in my (now defunct) Developmental Reading class with sophomores. Although they felt a bit uncomfortable and out-of-place, I thoroughly enjoyed their addition to class! (Let me see Ryan, Nicole, Karen, who else?)

Remember the "Class of Twelve" 9H English class we had? It was special to me, since that was my last high school English class before being transferred to Middle School!

OK! How many of you are left from Reading 8 who remember the S. Jesse Raphael Show? Or from World History 9 co-taught by me and Mrs. Lane? -Mrs. Hopper (AKA Mrs. Salvador)

It is difficult to find the right words to describe my memories of your class. As a teacher, there are always classes that you tend to be close to than others and your class is one of them. It is difficult to look at you as a whole class but rather as individuals with great personalities and the potential to go places in the future. I think that the event that helped me get to know you the most was the Washington trip. If in fact your class is the last one to go to Washington, there can be no better way to end an era! It was certainly a trip that I won't forget for a long time. As a high school teacher you get to watch students grow and mature and finally mold into a young adult ready to leave high school and begin the rest of their lives. I think that you are ready for the challenges of the future. Good luck in all of the endeavors that lie ahead. -Mr. Sarro

"You can never leave a place and the people you love, for you will always leave a little of yourself behind, and you will always take a little of the place and the people with you." (Unknown)

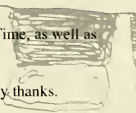

There is a very special place in my heart where I hold memories that have been made over the past 4 years since entering the doors of WBHS together. These memorable moments include my first freshman Health class as a rookie- thank you for confirming that teaching is really what I want to be doing. This and many memories continue to bring a smile to my face and the feeling of warm fuzzies! Please remember the following quote by William Fether as you enter into the next phase of your life... "An education isn't how much you have committed to memory, or even how much you know. It's being able to differentiate between what you do know and what you don't. It's knowing where to go to find out what you need to know; and it's knowing how to use the information once you get it." Thank you for leaving a little of yourself with me and making me a better person! -Miss Markham

Oh, the Places You'll Go!

Congratulations!

Today is your day. You're off to Great Places.

You're off and away!

You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes.

You can steer yourself in any direction you choose.

You're on your own. And you know what you know.

And YOU are the guy who'll decide where to go.

Out there things can happen and frequently do to people as brainy and footsy as you.

And when things start to happen, don't worry. Don't stew.

Just go right along. You'll start happening too.

OH, THE PLACES YOU'LL GO!

There is fun to be done. There are points to be scored. There are games to be won.

And the magical things you can do with that ball will make you the winning-est winner of all.

Fame! You'll be famous as famous can be, with the whole wide world watching you win on TV.

Except when they don't. Because, sometimes, they won't.

I'm afraid that some times you'll play lonely games too.

Games you can't win 'cause you'll play against you.

All alone! Whether you like it or not,

Alone will be something you'll be quite a lot.

And when you're alone, there's a very good chance you'll meet things that scare you right out of your pants.

There are some, down the road between hither and yon, that can scare you so much you won't want to go on.

But on you will go though the weather be foul.

On you will go though your enemies prowl. On you will go though the Hakken-Kraks howl.

Onward up many a frightening creek, though your arms may get sore and your sneakers may leak.

On and on you will hike. And I know you'll hike far and face your problems whatever they are.

You'll get mixed up, of course, as you already know.

You'll get mixed up with many strange birds as you go.

So be sure when you step.

Step with care and great tact and remember that Life's a Great Balancing Act.

Just never forget to be dexterous and deft.

And never mix up your right foot with your left.

And will you succeed? Yes! You will, indeed! (98 and 3/4 percent guaranteed.)

KID, YOU'LL MOVE MOUNTAINS!

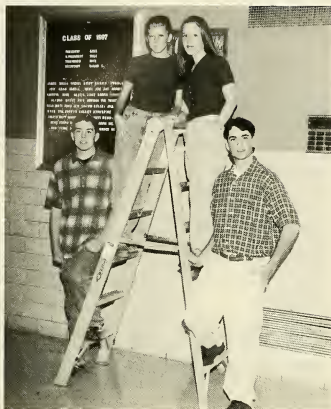

So...be your name Buxbaum or Bixby or Bray, or Mordecai Ali Van Allen O'Shea, you're off to Great Places! Today is your day!

Your mountain is waiting. So...get on your way!

Advice To Underclassmen

90 A 91
BASEBALL
CHAMPIONS (12

Kiss up or you will get nowhere in this school.
Don't fail Ms. Marber's American Studies Class.
 Don't puke in the golf van.
Don't argue with Ms. Marber- it's an endless black hole of hopelessness.
 Remember Ms. Marber is G-d and don't forget it, ever.
 Always get extra help in Chemistry.
Don't chew gum or eat Nerds in Mrs. Peckham's class.
 Keep filling those machines, Jay!
Hide your pictures- no matter what you think, your parents will find them!
 Bend over and touch the lines- don't cut the corners!
 Don't ever get lost at Great Woods, hold hands.
 Never leave the group in D.C.
 Always do your Marber homework.
 Never take 4 years of Ms. Marber's classes.
Get on Mr. Broman's good side- he'll back you the whole way.
Don't take more than the recommended amount of caffeine before school.
 Watch out for the troll at Dunkin' Donuts.
 Never mistake the gas for the brakes.
 Never take Ms. Marber's classes- she'll fail you!
 The answer lies in B.O.B.
 Run, run, don't get caught.
 Don't trust anyone named Mike.
Don't get involved in he said she said, just know what you said.
 Make friends in other towns because WB is boring.
 Never ask for the time during Football practice.
 Make revisions on your 1984 paper with Ms. Marber.
Refrain from saying "I hate" or "This is stupid" in Mr. Weintraub's class.
 Never take ANATOMY.
Keep walking down the halls when the cliques look at you.
 Take a shower in the morning.
 Eat your Frosty Pops.
Put off ALL work until the last minute . . . it works!
 Sleep- try it if you have time.
Never tell your boyfriend the other guy's number.
 Never go out with a psycho maniac.
 Don't play football.
 Say NO.
Don't laugh at Mr. Weintraub's dry Trig. jokes.
 Join a folk band.
 Free the twins!
Remember- Shampoo is better, it cleans the hair.
No, conditioner is better, it makes the hair silky and smooth.
 Have school spirit and enjoy high school!
Shoot for the moon. Even if you miss it, you will land among the stars.
 Always challenge a teacher's knowledge with questions.
 Always look for the right answer.
Get to know Jesus Christ as your personal savior.
 Always choose a concert over a play rehearsal.

Oh the mornings - 7:00 a.m. - Cafe B - sleepy bodies rolling in at any given moment. Coffee - water - even soda as an accompaniment for the ever present box of donuts and donut holes from Honey Dew. The rule is "if you feed them, they will come". And true to form, you did. Thank you to all who put your heart and soul into this book. For all your time, effort, sweat and tears I thank you. Nothing that is worthwhile is ever accomplished without them. To Jill and Chrissy, who worked through vacations and saw yearbook lay-outs in their sleep, thank you is not quite enough. To Nicole who chased down administrators, teachers, seniors and all the others thank you for your unending source of energy. To Tiffany - you may never want to look at a cropping pencil or a lay-out sheet again. Thanks for all your time. And Sarah, who did her job quietly and completely without any delays or complications, thank you for making it all seem a little easier. My thanks and appreciation also go to Jenn and Nicole B. who were there when I called on them to do a job that needed immediate attention. Then we have "the boys", Mike, Nick, Matt and Brian -- who always had a story, and excuse or a reason why. Thank you for what a quiet understanding of the book. There are no more deadlines now, no proof pages or people to call. Just enjoy your accomplishments as you look through the pages of this book and remember. . .

Mrs. Kerueck

SPECIAL THANKS TO: Lindsay Meade, Nancy Cordery, Mike Pigeon, Grace Frattalone, Teresa Devlin, Kristin Castricone, Maria Almeida, Stephani Shea, John Smith, Gerry Page, Jason Carnes, John Ferron, Joanne Condon, Fay DeGeorge, Jannell Burley, Maggie McPhail, "Bubba" Cashman and Alison Conroy for all their help in putting together the 1997 CLIMBER.

Hey Grace you did it!
This is just the beginning and not the end.

As you make the transition from High School to College...

Remember 2 very important things:
You have grown and learned much academically,
and will continue to do so.

And
You will grow, learn, and succeed in whatever you do much more by what you experience in the people, places, and things of the world around you.

Wishing you always the best,

Mom and the bunch at home.

Janell,

May the, fire of your spirit alway's burn!
May the, hunger to succeed make you crave!
May the, smile upon your face be true!
May the, line you tow be stretched, but, never broken!
May the, key to your heart open the door, slowly!
May the, love of the unknown be real!
May the, gifts you have received remembered!
May the, stars you see be reached!
May the, pain be comforted by treasured thoughts!
May the, reflection in the pond be your guidance!
May the, spell you always believed, be casted with integrity!
My love forever,
Dad!
